CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Background: Noble

I was born to a humble family of merchants in Tashalar, but in that country the heads of the ruling families traditionally sponsor any Aasimar born in their consortia, as they are seen as an omen of the favour of the gods. As such, I was afforded the best education and upbringing and warded by the ruling family - I was de facto an adopted member of that family.

I grew up in luxury, but never forgot my roots. When my Aasimar heritage blossomed into Sorcery, my Guide admitted that he was a distant ancestor of mine. Since that time I have refused to use her actual name (Agathangelos) and only ever refer to her as 'Grandma'. It has greatly affected our relationship - I am ever mocking, but in a good natured way. She takes it well.

At this time, she advised me to take a temporary leave from my homeland and travel the world to learn my art. This was wise advice, considering Tashalar's attitudes to arcane magic. So far, I have hidden my magic's nature from my family and people. Everyone at home thinks I am a Cleric.

I will return to Tashalar one day, ready to lead my family into the future - and reform Tashalar's prejudice against Sorcery.
